

Name: _____

Biotic and Abiotic Factors

Biotic factors are living things within an ecosystem; such as plants, animals, and bacteria, while abiotic are non-living components; such as water, soil and atmosphere. The products of living things are also considered biotic factors.

Classify the following factors as biotic or abiotic.

Monkey	_____
Wood	_____
Rock	_____
Soil	_____
Coal	_____
Nails	_____

Cucumber	_____
Fungus	_____
Clouds	_____
Leaves	_____
Seeds	_____
Corpse	_____

List biotic and abiotic factors in the following image.

Biotic	Abiotic